

CSCI 3100 Fall 2018 Final Information

- The final exam will take place on Monday, December 17, 2018 from 8:00am till 9:50 am
- The exam will be closed book and no electronic devices will be allowed.
- You can bring a double sided 8.5" x 11" sheet of notes. Submit your notes with the exam.
- The exam will cover material related to lecture notes, readings, assignments, and practice problems up to and including December 5.
 - Most the test will focus on the material covered from the start of the semester up to and including November 19.
 - There will be some "lighter" questions related to the material covered during November 26 – December 5 time frame.
- The final exam is worth 200 points
- If your final exam percentage grade exceeds your midterm exam percentage grade, the final exam percentage will replace your midterm exam grade.
 - For example, if you score 180 points on your final exam, you get 90% correct. If your midterm exam grade was less than 90%, your midterm exam grade will be updated to 90%.
- The format of the final exam is "multiple choice". Don't let this fool you. You still need to know all the covered material, including proofs.